Commitment

What is the Mackin Society?

In 1935, Father Henry Mackin brought Scouting to St. Vincent's. In the Scouting Movement, Father Mackin saw the values that he wanted to instill in the young men of the Parish, and in its program, he saw a way to teach those values:

TRUSTWORTHY

LOYAL

HELPFUL

FRIENDLY

COURTEOUS

KIND

OBEDIENT

CHEERFUL

THRIFTY

BRAVE

CLEAN

REVERENT

The Mackin Society is a group of scouters and friends of Scouting who share the same values as Father Mackin. Troop 25 asks each active scout to pay $2 a week in troop dues. Members of the Mackin Society have pledged to continue paying their "weekly dues" with an annual pledge of at least $100. This commitment will help continue the tradition of Troop 25 at St. Vincent's.
